

Open Teams

Staying at Home

1. This tournament is open for everyone. Played on BBO 22-23-24 may 2020.
2. A team can have 8 players.
3. The TD can allow exception of the 8 players rule, if some emergency occurs.
4. Format is swiss teams. 8 boards pr. Round. 9 rounds on Friday and Saturday. 5 rounds on Sunday in a new swiss. The swiss is delayed by 1 round, meaning that the first 2 rounds on Friday and Sunday are fixed in advance.
5. It is necessary to start well in advance for each round.
6. 20-0 MP scale is used for this tournament
7. Players create matches themselves on BBO. Instructions are given in a special document for the players.
8. The Home team creates the BBO match and has the seating privileges.
9. If a team does not play, then a team gets assigned result, whichever gives the highest score...
  - a. 12 VP
  - b. or average of the bye team's MP's in the tournament
  - c. or average of the opp's results against the team not showing.
10. If a team withdraws from the tournament, and has not played 50% of the matches, then all previous results are cancelled.
11. If a member of a team is cheating, then all results of that team is cancelled.

Semifinals and Finals and B-Finals

1. TOP four teams go to semifinals and finals on Sunday. 24 boards each. 2x12 boards. It is also played for the 3th place. No carry over. The top seeded team chooses their opponent from places 2-3-4.
  - a. If a tie occurs, then the total sum of the opp's MP results decides the rank. Bye included.
  - b. If still a tie, then IMP's difference.
  - c. If still a tie, then a draw.
2. If a tie occurs in semifinals or finals,
  - a. then a new match of 4 boards is started.
  - b. If still a tie, then sudden death knockout. First won board decides a winner. Difference of 10 is a win.
3. Teams not qualifying for the top 4, will continue in a new swiss on Sunday. B-Finals, taking their VP points with them into the new swiss.
  - a. If a tie occurs, then the total sum of the opp's MP results in the Sunday tournament decides the rank. Bye included.
  - b. If still a tie, then IMP's difference in the Sunday tournament.
  - c. If still a tie, then a draw.
4. This tournament does not give any privileges. No prizes. No masterpoints.